St Stephen's College

How Signet keeps the North Queensland school stocked all year round.

Established in 2006 with just 42 students, St Stephen's Catholic College has grown into a thriving school community, now home to hundreds of students and recognised as one of Queensland's top-performing schools. But with growth comes new challenges – especially when it comes to ensuring that essential supplies keep up with demand.

As student numbers increased, so too did the school's need for fundamental hygiene products like toilet paper, paper towels, and soap. Their previous supplier struggled to keep up, leading to inconsistent deliveries and frustrating shortages. Running out of loo paper at home is one thing, but for a bustling school filled with students? That's a logistical nightmare no principal wants to face.

Determined to find a reliable solution, St Stephen's turned to Signet in 2011. They needed a supplier who could not only meet their demand but also ensure their storerooms were always stocked – no matter the time of year.

"We were experiencing shortages of basic hygiene products like toilet paper, garbage bags, and hand towels which must be available for the students all year round. With a growing number of students, the supply issue created uncertainty as we couldn't find anyone in the Tablelands or Cairns who could service the large volumes we require."
– Hadyn Flynn, Business Manager for St Stephen's Catholic College.

The partnership between St Stephen's and Signet is still going strong. The local Signet Townsville team has become a trusted supplier, ensuring that the school never faces unexpected shortages again. Whether it's bulk toilet paper, hand soap, or other hygiene essentials, Signet's dependable service means the school can focus on what matters most – providing top-quality education to its students.

"The results we've seen since switching to Signet have been fantastic. No longer are the alarms sounded when the toilet paper is running low; if we require stock, we can order online and receive our goods the next day. Kids can be unpredictable, so it means a lot to have a supplier who has our back when things go pear-shaped. It's the perfect blend of modern conveniences – like quick and easy online ordering – paired with old-fashioned, hands-on service from your Signet Sales Representative."

Signet is proud to support St Stephen's Catholic College and over 60,000 other Aussie ventures.
